

Service Agreement Sunset List
(U.S. Domestic)

Carl Zeiss Meditec, Inc. no longer offers Service Agreements for the instruments listed below. These instruments will be serviced on a Commercially Reasonable basis.

Description	Model	Effective Date
Humphrey® Field Analyzer II	720 (non-i series)	Jan-09
Humphrey® Field Analyzer II	730 (non-i series)	Jan-09
Humphrey® Field Analyzer II	735 (non-i series)	Jan-09
Humphrey® Field Analyzer II	740 (non-i series)	Sep-09
Humphrey® Field Analyzer II	745 (non-i series)	Sep-09
Humphrey® Field Analyzer II	750 (non-i series)	Feb-11
Acuitus Autorefractor	5000	Aug-09
Acuitus Autorefractor	5010	Aug-09
Acuitus Autorefractor	5015	Aug-09
Visucam Lite	1st Generation*	Jan-11
Pre View PHP	PHP	Jan-11
Zeiss Laser	Visulas 532	Jan-11
Zeiss Laser	Visulink PDT	Jan-11
HARK autorefractor/keratometer	597, 597k & 598	Jan-11

* Windows 98 based

** non-s series

What does Commercially Reasonable mean?

The Commercially Reasonable period begins at a point when Carl Zeiss Meditec Inc (CZMI) can no longer guarantee to repair an instrument.

With your permission, CZMI will evaluate an instrument and determine to what extent it can be repaired, based on available parts and tooling. For this service, CZMI will charge a fee.

The customer may elect to proceed with the repair or not.

CZMI will also continue to stock frequently used supplies (paper, bulbs, etc) until such time when it becomes cost prohibitive.